Danby Appliances Announces 5-Year Warranty on Select Freezers A testament to Danby's commitment to delivering its customers high-quality products

GUELPH, ON (9/5/2018) – Danby Appliances, a compact appliance distributor/manufacturer with a rich seventy-year history, today announces the extension of its limited two-year warranty on freezers to five years. Effective September 5, 2018, the new warranty terms apply to 17 Models of Chest and Upright Freezers. Thereby continuing our long history of commanding confidence in the Danby brand.

“We are excited to offer this improved level of coverage to our customers,” says Steve Atkinson, senior category manager of freezers, wine and beverage refrigeration at Danby. “The move from two to five years demonstrates our commitment to quality and should reinforce the confidence our customers already have in the performance of our products. Additionally, consumers will enjoy the benefits of durable compressors, robust hinges and powerful long-life gaskets on top of this extended coverage.”
