FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Danby Appliances Available for Purchase in the UK

GUELPH, ON (November 1, 2019) – Canadian manufacturer Danby Appliances entered the UK market last year in an effort to expand its product offering to the European market. Danby is currently selling products from their refrigerator, freezer and wine cooler lines in the UK.

Danby continually strives to bring desirable and unique products to market. Their product innovation and quality makes them a leader in their product categories for over 70 years. Their dedication to both form and function has given them a competitive edge that consumers are looking for – Danby pays attention to styling, design and details while simultaneously delivering trustworthy products. Growing their product offerings to other countries is a part of Danby’s plan for future growth.

Danby appliances consistently have high product ratings in North America so it makes sense that they are hoping to see their success continue in the UK market.

The following models, popular in North America, are some of those being offered in the UK.

The Danby Contemporary Classic compact refrigerator (Danby 124 litre Compact Refrigerator DAR044KA1MDB) is retro-inspired, featuring simple, yet chic design, appealing to the modern consumer. This product boasts 4+ stars on majority of its North American retail sites.
